NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CANINE SCENT WORK®

WHO WE ARE

The National Association of Canine Scent Work® (NACSWSM) is an organization that encompasses education, the activity, and the competitive sport of Nose Work.

OUR MISSION

To create opportunities for dogs to develop their natural scenting abilities, and to conduct competition design and trial sanctioning, official instructor certification, and education in an ethical, enriching canine-centered environment.

The NACSWSM Trial division oversees the competitive side of K9 Nose Work® and is the governing body for competition rules, certifying officials, judges, and membership.

BENEFITS INCLUDE

- Eligibility for participation in K9 Nose Work® ORTs and trials
 - Lifetime dog registration
 - Annual membership for handlers
- Online access to trial results and membership information

K9 NOSE WORK®

The activity and sport of K9 Nose Work® was developed in 2006 by three professional dog trainers and detection dog handlers in Los Angeles, CA. Their approach to training and the K9NWSM methodology are designed to bring the activity of scent detection to as many dogs and people as possible, regardless of age, breed, temperament, training history or skill sets.

K9 NOSE WORK®

- Provides mental and physical exercise
- Builds a dog's focus, confidence, independence and problem-solving skills in safe and controlled environments
- Creates a strong bond and teamwork between handler and dog
 - Educates the handlers about canine behaviors

THE NACSWSM EDUCATION DIVISION OFFERS:

- K9 Nose Work® - how to get started!
- Comprehensive Certified Nose Work Instructor Program
 - Educational in-person and online events
 - Approved Instructor Directory
 - K9 Nose Work® for Shelter Dogs Program
